BARNEGAT LIGHTHOUSE

Broadway and the Bay
Barnegat Light, (609) 494-2016

More commonly known as "Old Barney," the lighthouse is the New Jersey Shore's most familiar landmark. The 172-foot tower, marking the entrance to Barnegat Inlet, was built in 1858. The park, a one time hideout of Captain Kidd and his pirates, offers facilities for fishing, swimming, and picnicking.

Bring the family and browse through the shops, watch commercial boats sail in with their fresh catch, take home some fresh seafood, enjoy a cup of cappuccino, or indulge in a delicious take-out dinner of fresh scallops at Off The Hook restaurant. The shops offer something for everyone including antiques, clothing for the rugged Viking, jewelry, and other funky finds. Learn how the commercial fishing industry works and take a free one-hour guided Dock Tour every Friday at 10:00 AM. Each summer, Viking Village also holds two Arts & Crafts Shows (5-25 and 8-31) and two Antique & Collectible Shows (8-3 and 9-14). All shows are free admission.
